2022 GCP&T Bike Rides

GCP&T Morning Milers

Beginning at various locations around Greene County, these rides will take you on scenic round trips back to your starting points. Most rides are for the intermediate skill level, and some may include a short, off-trail portion.

All rides are free and average 25-35 miles at 14-16 MPH. Riders meet at 8:30 AM with rides starting at 9 AM, finishing around 11 AM. Riders must be at least 18 years old and wear a helmet to participate. Rides will be cancelled in the event of a thunderstorm.

GCP&T Night Rides

Join the GCP&T Trail Sentinels for moonlight rides along the region's bike trails. GCP&T Trail Sentinels are an elite volunteer group who patrol the trails and coordinate several cycling events. All night riders must be at least 18 years old, wear a helmet and have lights on their bikes. Incentives will be offered for those participants completing all or half of the miles available for the season.

All Night Rides are free and will start at 7 PM, finishing around 9 PM. Rides will be cancelled in the event of a thunderstorm.
